THE ENCHANTED "SASSI" OF MATERA

The ancient city of Matera will surprise us with its exceptional art, its culture and its folk wisdom. Between its small streets and houses built out of limestone, escorted with our local guide, we will relive man's way of life, from the stone age era to nowadays. We will discover the city of "Sassi", with its ancient quarters with archaic charm, an example of an urbanistic structure unique in the world, declared property of Unesco. It is the city of the hundred and more rocky churches, many that still have impressive frescos from Latin and Byzantine influences. Soak up the charming and impressive atmosphere that recently inspired the actor-producer Mel Gibson so much that he placed the set of his film "The Passion of Christ" in this small town, in the heart of the region of the Basilicata. A tasting of local products will regenerate us during our walk.
