OLYMPIA & ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM

A classic, highly impressive itinerary that takes you through the ruins of ancient Olympia, set in a hilly landscape at the foot of Mount Kronos. The excavations, which began in 1875 by the Germans and which are still in progress, have brought to light this sacred area, which encloses within its walls an imposing complex of monuments including the Temples of Jupiter and Hera, the Grammar School, the Gymnasium and the Stadium. You'll visit the Museum where the famous statue of Hermes of the Praxiteles will be seen.

Pay attention

Please note: The visit of archaeological excavations takes place on foot (approx. 1 ½ hours) and guests are advised to wear comfortable shoes and clothing. Due to works in the main parking area of the archaeological site, the drop off point for the visit to Olympia will be 400 metres from the entrance (about 5 minutes walking to site)

On the right you can see a video of the shore excursion that you have selected. To see the video correctly you must have Microsoft Windows Media Player software installed.
