CANCELLATION POLICY

Should Sundancer Cruises cancel this sailing, where the passenger is not at fault and has not cancelled in violation of the terms and conditions set forth above, all sums paid to Sundancer Cruises will be promptly paid to the passenger (unless the passenger advises Sundancer Cruises in writing after cancellation). This provision does not apply where Sundancer Cruises has remitted payment to another registered wholesale seller of travel or a carrier (without obtaining a refund), and where the wholesaler or provider defaults in providing the agreed-upon service. In this situation, Sundancer Cruises must provide the passenger with a written statement accompanied by bank records (establishing the disbursement of the payment), and if disbursed to a wholesale seller of travel, provide proof of the current registration of that wholesaler.

NOTE: It is very rare that the Cruise Line cancels cruises. In the event that the Cruise Line should cancel a cruise due to unforeseen circumstances, they will notify you immediately. Since every situation is different, Cruise Line's upper management will assess the severity of the situation when it happens and act accordingly. In the event of strikes, lockouts, riots, weather conditions, mechanical difficulties, or for any other reason, the Cruise Line has the right to cancel, advance, postpone, or deviate from any scheduled sailing or port of call without prior notice. In this situation the Cruise Line may substitute another ship or port of call. However the Cruise Line is not legally liable for any loss to guests by reason of the cancellation, advancement, postponement, deviation, or substitution. In addition, while the Cruise Line attempts to follow our published schedules as closely as possible, the Cruise Line is not responsible if they cannot adhere exactly to the published times at any of their ports of call. However, they will attempt to keep all passengers informed of any changes. We recommend that all guests purchase a Vacation Protection Plan for their peace of mind.
