AIRPORT AND CRUISE TERMINAL INFORMATION

Please note prices listed below are approximate and subject to change.*

CRUISE CHECK-IN

Begins usually around 12:30 pm, depending on how the debarkation of the previous cruise goes. However, you will not be able to go to the cabins until later in the afternoon, as they will need to finish cleaning them. Usually there is an announcement on board when you can go to your cabin.

AIRPORTS

Athens International Airport (ATH)

31 Viltanioti Street, 145 64 Kifissia, Athens

<https://www.aia.gr/traveler/>

By taxi: There are taxi queues outside all gates of the airport. A taxi ride from the airport to Piraeus port will take approximately 40-60 minutes, depending on the traffic. The taxi fare (indicative) from Athens airport to the port of Piraeus is 45 euros in the daytime and 64 euros at night (24:00-05:00). You can book your Athens airport transfer online. The average taxi holds 3-4 people and 2-3 pieces of luggage. Local taxis accept US Dollars, however EURO is preferable. Few drivers speak English.

Ride Share: Uber is available in Athens, but it is not a popular option yet so ride availability might be scarce. TaxiBeat is a popular transportation app that is like Uber, but not a rideshare service. A TaxiBeat taxi is known to be smoke-free, clean and driven by a courteous and trustworthy English-speaking drivers. Users can download the app, plug in a pickup address and track when a TaxiBeat taxi will arrive in real time.

By metro: The metro connects the airport to the port with a direct line. The metro station is located right outside the airport. You board the blue line, the terminal of which lies right by the Piraeus harbor. The first metro train leaves the airport at 6:10 am, while the last at 23:34 pm. Itineraries from the airport depart every 36 minutes. The entire trip lasts around an hour. The ticket costs 9 euros (one-way). When you arrive at Piraeus, be sure to locate the gate your ferry departs from, as the port's area is quite wide.

By train: From the Athens Airport station (adjacent to the airport terminal) the Athens Suburban Railway (Proastiakos) operates a direct service between the Athens International Airport and Piraeus port. The journey takes 60 minutes and the ticket costs 9 euros (one-way).

By bus: The bus is the most affordable option. Bus X96 covers the route from Athens airport to Piraeus port directly. Buses operate 24 hours and the drive takes about 90 minutes. Itineraries depart every 40 minutes during the day and every 15-30 minutes from 22:30 pm to 05:00 am.

Ticket price: 5 euros. (can only be used once).

Barcelona International Airport

The Airport code for Barcelona is BCN.

El Prat de Llobregat
